

Why become a Stone Federation member?

Why Stone Federation membership...

- Company profile in a glossy, full colour, premium publication with a circulation of over 5,000, including the top 100 architects practice and all local authorities, would cost you £1,500
- A profile on a website with over 65,000 visitors a year, with full access to update your page as often as you liked would cost you £2,500.
- Situations Vacant advert through a website with 65,000 visitors a year, social media accounts with a combined following of over 5,500 and a dedicated training service would cost you £750
- Technical Advice Service with an unlimited amount of usage would cost at least £1,500

Believe it or not, all of the above are free of charge as part of Stone Federation membership.

Stone Federation membership also provides you with:

- 10% discount on all British Standards
- Up to 40% discount on all Stone Federation publications
- Free employment documents and publications worth £500
- Exclusive access to technical publications produced by leading industry experts
- First class networking opportunities with hundreds of other industry professionals
- Free unlimited use of helplines including health & safety and sustainability advice services

The only question that remains is can you afford not to be a member?

To find out more, email us at enquiries@stonefed.org.uk

Federation
Stone
Great Britain