Work History.

March 2021– 2023. Cliveden conservation and fortress restoration: I was working on lots of different projects and types of jobs including. Stone repairs on statues and staircases to re pointing of modern and old churches. In this job I'm using lots of different machines techniques and tools to complete the jobs at hand. These include grinders chisels stone cutters and lots of different chemicals. We also do a lot of steam cleaning using high pressure doff machines as well as sandblasting walls and stone structures.

Wimbledon brewery – 2019-2021

In this job I was helping the brewers with their day to day tasks, for example filling the casks and kegs with beer. Making sure the right amount of finings goes into the casks. Lots of cleaning including cask cleaning. I was also leaning to take temperature readings, pouring and mixing ingredients to be grinded and eventually brewed. I was also constantly cleaning the brewery and making sure the mash tons were ready for the next batch. I was also making sure the brewers had everything they need for the nest brew. Packaging and putting kegs neatly away for storage was another duty I was regularly doing.

January 2016- march 2018

Frank solutions: I was working as a subcontractor for Kone in this job, helping the lift engineers out with their tasks and also fitting security doors and lot of logistics work. I worked with a lot of tools, including all types of SDS and IMPACT drills, grinders. This job also included lots of heavy lifting of very fragile objects. Working at a height while fitting security VOK doors was another one of my duties so I have lots of experience working safely from a height and with harness.

2014- January 2016

Metal and steel works ltd: In this job I worked alongside welders and fabricators assisting them with all of their duties. This included, cutting with all types of metals and using lots of grinders, working at height and with very heavy items and some basic welding.

2013 – –2014 Conference & Banqueting Assistant at The Richmond Hill Hotel, Richmond, Surrey TW10 Duties: Setting up meeting and conference rooms for functions and events, managing replenishment during room hire, handling customers in all parts of the hotel including reception, restaurant and bar, barwork, car parking, setting up a/c and TV video systems and projectors.

April 2012- February 2013 – Sales Assistant/ Security at Lloyds Pharmacy. Tolworth, Surrey.

Duties: Serving and assisting customers, giving product and basic health advice, operating the till, taking and giving out prescriptions prepared by the pharmacist, shelf stacking and cleaning. This was a high-pressure job in a busy pharmacy dealing with sometimes very stressed customers, including heroin addicts with whom I had to oversee the taking of controlled drugs. (Methadone.) I also had to look out for and sometimes confront shoplifters and troublemakers.
