

Stonemasons and Heritage skilled operatives

Lloyd and Smith Ltd are a traditional restoration company based in Oldham, Lancashire.

We have 20 years trading history with a full order book and are actively looking for all aspects of skills involved in the traditional restoration of historic properties. Fixer masons and banker masons. Lime Pointing and restoration skills. Traditional joiners with all round ability. General assistants on site with some experience of working in construction. CSCS card and driving license would be required.

The positions are with the potential of long term employment on a self employed or cards in basis, with the possible benefit of a vehicle supplied. The applicants must be trustworthy and reliable, and be prepared to travel to our sites anywhere in the North West of England, or work away from home if necessary.

We offer extremely competitive hourly/daily rates of pay for the right applicants, and hopefully lasting employment. There is the opportunity to work extra time if necessary and potential bonus incentives.

The applicants must have proof of skills and ability and be willing to attend a face to face interview in Oldham. Please send your CV in the first instance to info@lloydandsmith.co.uk for the attention of Bryan Smith.
